

University Chest Donations Show 7 Per Cent Drop

Free Will Offerings
From University
Net $581.50

LESS THAN 1933

"Community Chest donations were much better than we had expected," Irwin A. Hammer, education instructor, in charge of the campaign at Municipal university, said Wednesday. The faculty contributed $581.50 while students gave $7.02.

"The total contribution is but seven per-cent less than last year," he said. "In view of general financial conditions I believe we can be proud of this."

Express Thanks

There was no organized campaign among the student body to secure chest donations. No "pressure" was put on the students and every cent received was voluntarily contributed.

Members of the committee in charge of contributions were: Miss Nell Ward, chemistry instructor, Mrs. Leslie Johnson, English instructor, Mrs. L. O. Taylor, E. M. Hosman, head of the extension department, Dr. W. M. Macley, chemistry and physics instructor, and H. Robert Orr, associate professor of English.

"I want to publicly express my thanks to the faculty, students, and committee members who so generously donated time and money to making the campaign a success," Hammer said.

French Club Will Offer Three Plays During The Year

BY HELEN HARRIS

French games and songs led by Catherine Pape, and also an article on the N. R. A. given in French by Josephine Carroll was the program at the French Club meeting, Wednesday, November 1.

Plans were made for three French plays to be given during the year. They are one-act plays dependent for their success on the cleverness of their lines and characters.

"Le Medecin Mystifie" will have in its cast: Laura Buckland, '37, Eileen Leppert, '35, also Lando Otto, '35.

A second play, "Nicette," will include in its cast: Jean Noyes, '35, John Riordan, '34, Robert Saxton, '34, Charles Horejs, '36.

The last of the series will be "Cupidon Dentiste." The cast consists of: Fay Lane, '36, Betty Amsden, '36, Bernice Perlmeter, '36, Robert Brown, '35, Carson Rogers, '37, and Jay Planteen, '34.

Will Discuss Paying Editorial Assistants

The payment of editorial assistants on The Gateway will be discussed at the next meeting of the Board of Student Publications, V. Royce West, chairman of the board, said Wednesday.

Sororities Compete In Ticket Contest For Omaha Chamber

Four sororities are competing in a contest to sell tickets for admission to the Junior Chamber of Commerce "House of Tomorrow" at Fifty-third street and Country Club boulevard, which will be open for public inspection after November 10.

A prize will be awarded to the sorority selling the most tickets. Leaders are the various presidents: Dorothy Hansen, Pi Omega Pi; Maxine Schnurmann, Gamma Sigma Omicron; Mary Alice Snider, Sigma Chi Omicron; and Charlotte Fetterman, Kappa Psi Delta.

Orin Stepanek Is Speaker At Sigma Tau Delta Meeting

Tells Hearers Tragedy Died
With Shakespeare, Ibsen
Has Little To Teach

By CHARLES HOREJS

Laughter is the one integrating force in this disintegrated world, was the belief of Mr. Orin Stepanek, professor of world literature at the University of Nebraska, expressed in his talk before Sigma Tau Delta at the Paxton hotel Tuesday evening. Stepanek believes that the humorists of all ages have a mutual understanding, while the tragedians, because they deal each with a different theme, have no such tie.

Speaking on "World Literature," Stepanek dealt chiefly with the Greeks, with fleeting reference to a number of contemporary authors.

"Tragedy died with Shakespeare," he stated, and went on to speak of the inferiority of modern drama. Ibsen, he believes has little to teach us. Bernard Shaw, he compares to Aristophanes, but on a much narrower and inferior scale.

Eugene O'Neill impresses him as our only worthwhile modern dramatist, and one of the most popular. "I have seen O'Neill's plays in two German countries, and three Slavic ones," said Mr. Stepanek, and they seemed to be well liked even in translation.

Stepanek related a British essayist's anecdote about Voltaire, which illustrated his earlier statement of the unifying effect of laughter.

Miss Dorothy Linsell, contralto, gave a group of vocal numbers, and Bernard Pawloski played two piano selections following Stepanek's address. The musical program was in charge of Irene Goosman.

Tryouts for Xmas German Play Will Be Held Monday

"Das kleine Weihnachtsspiel" is the title of this year's Christmas play to be presented in German by the German Club. There are to be eleven principal characters and a supporting cast of fifteen.

"The plot is the Biblical story of Mary and Joseph being turned away from the inn and will be given in modern style," Miss Bertha Mueller, German instructor said Wednesday. Tryouts for parts in the play will be held at Science Hall, Monday at 12 o'clock. Any student taking German may try out.

Legality Of Building Project Questioned; Decision Is Withheld

Advisory Board Studying
Regent's Request
For Aid

The state public works advisory board will give its decision today at a meeting in Fremont, on the application of Municipal university for federal aid.

Discussion concerning the legality of the Municipal university building project prevented the state public works advisory board from announcing its decision at the meeting in Fremont November 2.

President W. E. Sealock of Municipal university who presented the project believes that no difficulty will be experienced on this score as the judiciary committee of the regents found the proposal legal after several weeks of study.

Accumulate $200,000 Surplus

The project would employ 500 men for six months. President Sealock said in presenting the building proposal. He told of a 75 per cent increase in enrollment since the University became a municipal institution in 1931.

The building proposal calls for a 600 thousand dollar project by the government to be rented at the rate of $32,500 annually for 35 years. Receipts from taxation and tuition were pledged.

Paul W. Martin, vice-chairman of the regents told of the university's accumulating a 200 thousand dollar surplus despite a reduction of the levy.

Revise Curriculum, Colgate Receives $120,000 Grant

Will Offer Survey Courses
Similar To Those At Omaha U.

The Colgate educational plan, similar in many respects to that inaugurated at Municipal university this fall, has won for Colgate university a gift of $120,000 from the Carnegie Foundation it was announced recently.

The grant will be paid in four annual installments of $30,000 each. Commenting upon the grant, Dr. Cuten, president of Colgate said that fifteen new men would be added to the faculty and that the scope of the plan would now be broadened.

Combine Courses At Omaha

The curriculum at Colgate is divided into six departments and a survey course is offered in each one except that of languages. There are survey courses in physical sciences, biological sciences, social sciences, philosophy and religion, and fine arts.

The Municipal university offers survey courses in three of the departments offered by Colgate: Physical sciences, biological sciences and social sciences. English, philosophy, and fine arts have been combined to form a humanities survey course at Municipal university.

Former Municipal university athletes can secure a life pass admitting them to all Cardinal athletic events for three dollars.

Municipal U. Building Project Approved By Omaha Civic Leaders

Approximately twenty-five Omaha civic, industrial, and political leaders spoke in favor of the Municipal university building project at the hearing before the state public works advisory board at Fremont November 2.

Among those who spoke were: Dr. Jennie Callfas, president of the Omaha Women's club; Paul Martin, president of the Chamber of Commerce and a regent; Mayor Roy N. Towl; Mrs. H. O. Hule, state executive secretary of the League of Women voters; and J. E. Davidson, president of the Nebraska Power company and a regent.

No one opposed to the project appeared.

Three Philosophy Classes Conduct Third Symposium

Dr. Wilfred Payne Is Host
To Students And Faculty

A group representing three philosophy classes of Dr. Wilfred Payne, professor of philosophy, conducted a symposium on the philosophical views of living scientists at Dr. Payne's home, Monday evening.

Many recent scientists have included in their books something about their philosophical views, according to Dr. Payne. The symposium conducted on this subject was the third of this type which Dr. Payne has organized. Two were held last year, one on progressive college education and the other on the philosophy of George Santayana.

Students who took part in the symposium and gave talks before the group were Jane Masters, '36; T. L. Frank, extension; George Bickley, extension; Hans Glissman, extension; Harold Eggen, '34; Paul Oliver, extension; John Miller, extension; Robert Johnson, '35; and Charles Seviak, '35.

Guests were Mrs. Lillian Frank ex.; Mrs. Maybelle Bickley ex.; A. S. Dahlgren ex.; Amelia Martens ex.; Patricia Bush '36; Mr. Martin Bush, head of the music department; D. C. Turner ex.; Flora Marie Handley '36; Dr. Edgar Holt, dean; Dr. L. N. Garlough, head of the biology department; and Pres. W. E. Sealock.

Views that the group considered most interesting, according to Dr. Payne, were those of Sir Arthur Stanley Eddington and Sir James Jeans. The latter believes that matter does not really exist, and that reality is just a form of mathematics.

See Registrar For Scholarship Details

Details of the W. E. Boeing scholarship contest have been received by Registrar C. W. Helmstadter. The contest is open to undergraduate students between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five. Winners of the scholarships will be chosen on the basis of a two-thousand word essay on some aeronautical subject.

Winners will be given free training at the Boeing School of Aeronautics at Oakland, California.

Gala Day will be held May 25.

Cards Host To Western Union Squad Tonight

Omaha Is Favored To Defeat Luckless
Telegraphers

IOWANS LOSE 7

BY PAUL LANGE

Coach Sed Hartman's Cardinal pigskin artists open the first of a four-game home schedule at Western League park tonight when they tangle with Western Union college of LeMars, Iowa. The opening kick-off is slated for 8 o'clock.

The Omaha footballers are expected to have an easy time with the invading Iowa eleven, but the Telegraphers may put up an unexpected battle. Western Union has not won a single contest this season. It has been beaten by Wayne Normal, 25 to 0; Sioux Falls college, 21 to 7; Southern Normal, 13 to 0; Augustana, 30 to 0; Upper Iowa, 46 to 6; Morningside, 79 to 0; and Buena Vista, 19 to 0.

Reserves Will See Action

In previous Omaha-Western Union tussles, the Telegraphers have a slight advantage. Omaha took the first contest between the two schools in 1922 by a 23 to 0 score. In 1924 Western Union thumped the Cardinals, 28 to 0. Again in 1928 the Iowa gridders pasted a 19 to 2 defeat on Omaha. The two elevens fought to a 6 to 6 tie in 1929.

Art Fraternity To Start Again With A Special Meeting

BY ROBERT NORELIUS

"Phi Alpha Sigma, art fraternity, will again be organized this year," Dr. Bertha C. Koch, head of the department of Painting, Sculpture, and Architecture, said Wednesday.

Last year it was called the Paint-Pot Club. Fifteen charter members are on the roll. The purpose of the club is to promote more interest in artistic matters. One semester of Fine Arts is the qualification for membership.

The following officers elected last year will serve this year: president, Oscar Nelson; vice president, Mary Frances Hughes; secretary-treasurer, Agneta Jensen; publicity chairman, Milton Wolsky.

All students interested in art were invited to attend a special meeting of the fraternity today at 10 o'clock, Dr. Koch said.

Mr. Nerode Addresses Morning Assembly

Mr. Nerode, a native of India, addressed University students at Assembly this morning on "Conditions in Modern India." Mr. Nerode graduated from the University of Calcutta, and also attended Harvard University.

A girl's trio also entertained with several numbers.

Mid-semester examinations will be held November 14-17.

THE GATEWAY

Official Student Publication of the Municipal University of Omaha

A YEAR BOOK

The administration's refusal to levy an activities tax renders improbable the publishing of a year book similar to those of more prosperous times. This does not mean, however, that an annual of some kind cannot be published this year.

A book the size of last year's student directory could be printed for approximately $700. It would not be an elaborate affair, of course, but it would be an excellent remembrance of student life at Municipal University. Incidentally, this type of book is replacing the old fashioned annual at a great many universities.

Money to finance this book could be raised from advertising, the present incidental fee, and a small charge could be levied as the student receives the book. Faculty subscriptions would be an additional source of income.

Student, In His Spare Time, Makes Telescopes

George Bickley, an extension student, makes telescopes in his spare time at home. He is an employee of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company laboratories.

Ten members of Theta Phi Delta fraternity attended the public works advisory board hearing at Fremont November 2. The members were Bob Johnson, Dan Macken, Glen Cunningham, Troy Woerner, Gene Peterson, Woodrow Tietzort, John Moucka, Ray Larsen, Cliff Anderson and Bob Saxton.

Richard Hanson, ex '35, is working at the Cudahy Packing plant in South Omaha.

Dick Anderson, ex '35, is attending Chicago university.

Shelby Gamble, ex '34, is attending the Nebraska Medical college in Omaha. At Municipal university he was a student athletic manager and was active in Theta Phi Delta fraternity.

Winners of the high jumping contest held in the gym last Monday at ten o'clock, have been invited by Coach Sed Hartman to try out for the track team next spring. Six men cleared the bar at five feet, three inches.

Arthur Olson, ex '35, is working at the Bloom milling works in Omaha.

Ed Bennett, ex '36, winner of a four year scholarship to Municipal university from Tech High, is managing his own radio repair shop at Twenty-fifth and Cumings streets.

Scribners magazine has accepted a sonnet, "Half Wisdom," by Hugh Robert Orr, assistant professor of English.

Carroll Sales, '33, former Cardinal football and basketball player, brought his entire Missouri Valley, Iowa, high school football team to the Wayne-Omaha homecoming game Friday, October 20. He is head coach at Missouri Valley high school.

"Bungy" Gordon, '33, a halfback on last year's football team, has signed up with the Storz Triumphs, an Omaha professional team. Most of the squad members are former Nebraska university players.

Adelyn Specht, '33, was on the campus Wednesday, November 8. She recently returned from a six week visit in Chicago where she was a frequent visitor at the Century of Progress.

STUDENT FORUM

We Like To See The Cardinals Win
But When They Play Teams With Better Records We Must Admit It.

To The Editor:

I wish to call your attention to the headlines over the articles pertaining to the football games, which appeared in the last two issues of the Gateway. The titles in order of their appearance are: Ichabods Favored to Win Over Omaha; Peru Favored to Trim Cards in Tilt Tonight. My criticism of these titles is, the pessimistic aspects they convey of forecasting future results. Cards Out to Win Tonight. High Hopes For Victory. Why not a few captions of this character?

Please, news staff, where is your optimism and psychology. The players are both ethical and aesthetical, although not honoring a Greek god. Why not less crape and more olive wreaths?

So long as you allow the sub-conscious mind to transmit to the conscious mind, such pessimistic forecasts, you are not helping the boys to win that olive wreath.

Whether I am right or wrong concerning this small matter, it is off my chest now. If there are grammatical errors in this, my first literary attempt, please do not judge harshly, as I am only a Freshman trying to get by in this world. I am not enrolled in English or Psychology. I didn't pass the English 212 placement test, and the allotted time was up in the Psychological test before I could think what to write. By the way, do you know the opposite of the word lose?

W. P.

Dear Editor:

Have you, perchance, visited the library during the past two weeks? If so, perhaps you have been aware of the banging of the south door, probably due to a few loose screws. We have heard that there are a few husky gentlemen working their way through the University. If so, five minutes of their time, a few screws, a screw driver or hammer, would remedy this.

Must Sign Letters For The Gateway

If the "former Omaha university booster" at Peru Normal who wrote the letter denouncing the tactics of the Cardinal gridders in the Peru game Friday evening will identify him or herself, The Gateway will be glad to print the letter.

Business Club Will Be Organized Soon

A Business Administration Club will be organized in the near future, Dr. I. H. Rhoads, Head of the Department of Business Administration, said Tuesday. Meetings of the club will probably be held Fridays at 10 A. M.

The club will be composed of students in the department. Concerning the activities of the club, Dr. Rhoads stated: "It will be the purpose of the club to afford the students social contacts with one another and to give practice in Parliamentary Law procedure. Prominent business men will speak before the club and visits will be conducted to local factories and offices."

Paul Frumkin, ex '36, visited The Gateway office in the men's faculty building Friday, November 3. Earlier in the fall he had planned to move to Chicago with his parents but this has been indefinitely postponed, he said.

Marshall Dunn, ex '35, is a reporter on the student newspaper at Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill.

Dean of Women Goes Shopping For Furnishings

By ROSELLA PRALL

Mrs. Rene Stevens, Dean of Women, and Mrs. James E. Bedner, member of the Board of Regents, recently began the selection of furnishings for the ground floor rooms of the women's faculty building.

"It will be necessary to measure for the carpets and wall furnishings which will require considerable time," Mrs. Stevens explained. "We will shop around so as to secure the most and best possible for the money. We hope to have the rooms ready for use by the time cold weather begins."

Mrs. Stevens believes the building will offer a refuge for students when the weather makes the library uncomfortable for study.

A piano which came from—nobody knows where—but is believed to have been left there by former tenants, may be moved to Joslyn Hall.

Debate Topic Chosen By Forensic Society

That the powers of the president of the United States should be substantially increased has been chosen as the debate topic for the coming year by the Nebraska Intercollegiate Forensic society Dr. Benjamin Boyce, debate club sponsor, said at a meeting November 3.

Bernice Perlmeier, '36, and Josephine Carroll, '36, winners of the women's state debate tournament last year will compose the women's team this year. Leading candidates for the men's team are Leo Nogg, '34, Arthur King, '36, Robert Norelius, '37, and Ramon Peterson, '37.

Students Present One Act Play At Writers' Meeting

Valiant, a one act play by Holworthy Hall, will be presented by the extension class of the dramatics department before the Nebraska Writers Guild Saturday afternoon, November 18 at the Fontenelle Hotel.

The cast of The Valiant includes Kathryn Phillips, Orville Roderick, Sylvan Frankel, Willard Dressler, and Jack Temin. Mrs. Fred Ellis is director.

An account of last summer's playground program in Omaha, written by Dr. T. Earl Sullenger, will appear in an early spring issue of Recreation, a magazine published by the National Recreation Association.

"Female" To Head Bill At Orpheum Tomorrow

A cast recruited from stage and screen will support Ruth Chatterton in "Female," which comes to the Orpheum for a week starting tomorrow. The second feature will be Richard Dix in "Day of Reckoning." —(Adv.)

The Washburn college football team which defeated Omaha 31 to 0 will play the Fresno, California teachers college eleven at Fresno tomorrow.

Cards Host To Western Union Squad Tonight

In practice sessions this week the three-H coaches have been using a mixed lineup and it is this eleven that may get the call tonight. Carl Baade and Jack Nieman, formerly a backfield player, have been at ends; Howard and Norman Sorensen have been at their usual tackle posts; Noel King and Myrl McKean have been at guards and Lowell Fouts has been holding down his regular snapperback position.

Glasgow To Referee

Coach Hartman will probably use his first string backfield combination which includes Gene Hoover at the signal calling post, Bill Pressley and Larry Hall or Fred Tyler halfbacks; and Leo Pearey at fullback.

Bill Glasgow, former Iowa university star, will referee the game, Ernie Adams will umpire and Mickey O'Donoghue will head lines.

Scout Fraternity Elects Officers

Officers were elected by Alpha Phi Omega, boy scout fraternity, at a meeting held Monday in Room 3. George Alexander was elected Grand Master; Elbert Hoisington, Deputy Grand Master; Perry Rushlau, Scribe; and Leonard Riordon, Treasurer.

A discussion was held concerning the formation of a national chapter. Those present at the meeting were Leonard Riordon, Warren Novak, John Carlson, Edward Scouten, John Hadfield, Perry Rushlau, Elbert Hoisington, George Alexander, Don Rankin, and Lyman Cook.

Irwin A. Hammer, instructor in education, is sponsor.

Boxing Tournery For Men's Gym Classes

Boxing will hold the spot light in the gym classes next week as Lee Grossman, assistant physical director has served notice of his intention to hold a boxing tournament.

The leather swinging contests will be three round bouts, and entrants will be matched according to weights.

Card Gridders Upset Bobcats By Score of 13-0

Cards Kick Dopebuck- et; Score Twice, Muff 3 Chances

By BOB RACE

Before a crowd of 1,500 spectators Omaha trounced the previously unbeaten Peru Normal team 13 to 0 at Peru Friday night. It was the first time the Bobcats had been scored upon this year.

The first quarter was scoreless with the pigskin deep in Peru territory most of the time. The Card's blew three chances to score this period. The ball was lost on downs each time.

Hoover Scores Twice

The Card's failed to score at the beginning of the second quarter when Peary passed to Hoover in the end zone, the pass being high. The Red-bird's tallied late in the second period when Hoover smashed over center from the six inch line and then kicked the extra point. This march started when Presley intercepted a Peru pass in midfield and raced to the 15 yard line. Peary and Presley carried it to the six inch line.

Frank Hummel and Jimmie James set up the pins for the Card's last touchdown by intercepting Peru passes which took the ball to the Bobcat 40 yard line. Presley and Hoover advanced the ball to the 8 yard line in two consecutive plays and on the next play Hoover behind beautiful blocking of Presley, Tyler and Peary swept around left end to score. The try for point was wide.

L. A. Johnson, '36, made a motorcycle trip through Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin, and South Dakota during the summer. He visited the trading floor of the Board of Trade while in Chicago.

Dishing Out Sport Hash

BELIEVE it or not—this publication is getting fan mail now. Very encouraging. If we could just get a few more letters there would be a lot to write about.

This bit of fan mail received this week comes from Peru, down in dear old Bobcat land where last Friday Omaha university's footballers trounced Coach Glen Gilkeson's Peru Normal eleven to the tune of 12-to-0.

The letter is somewhat critical and has no compliments to Omaha's grid-ders. Here are excerpts from the message which was not signed other than "From a former Omaha university booster."

"AS a loyal Omahan I regret to say that I was terribly disappointed during the Omaha-Peru football game last Friday night. I expected a good, clean game—but instead I saw a good, dirty game.

"Coach Hartman and the Omaha university players and supporters should be thoroughly disgusted with the 13-to-0 victory, a game won by slugging, by cruel use of the knees, by taking advantage of Peru boys who were down. That score should be written in Yellow—Yes! Yellow!

"Some of the Omaha grid-ders played clean football, but on the whole Omaha university was a discredit to the metropolis of Nebraska. Instead of showing real metropolitan football the Omaha team showed crude "hicknissness."

"In conclusion, I want to say that Omaha has a reputation among the colleges in Nebraska which will never be lived down unless a miracle should be performed.

* * * *

WELL, how's that for a bit of fire? Now for a few opinions from this end. As an actual witness this writer replies that Omaha's conduct and playing was no more a discredit to the city of Omaha than was Peru Normal's to Peru.

If Peru supporters think that they gave Omaha a square deal they better think again. First of all, the football game was played with a brown ball. Brown balls are seldom used in night games. True enough, Omaha wore white jerseys so naturally would have been unfair to Peru had the game been played with a white ball.

But, Peru had on blue jerseys and khaki pants. It would have been more logical to use a yellow ball. However, Omaha is not kicking in the least. For a fact, few remarks were raised against Peru's conduct because the Omaha team knew how to control its actions. Since a Peru supporter has become so anxious to "chew the rag" after the game is over and practically forgotten this writer is pressed to give Omaha's viewpoints.

Another point which was far from a credit to Peru. After the game was over, Peru did not furnish the Omaha team with towels with which to take a shower.

Chadron Only Bar To Cardinal Title Hopes

Only the Chadron teachers college eleven stands between the Municipal University Cardinals and an undisputed claim to the conference championship.

pionship. The two teams will meet in Omaha Thanksgiving Day.

The Eagles with a 21 to 7 win over Wayne safely tucked away will meet Peru Normal at Peru tomorrow. They are favored to win handily. The Chadron tilt is the only remaining conference game on the Cardinals' slate.

125 See Nine O'clock Champs Win Contest

One hundred twenty-five students saw Number Two of the nine o'clock class beat team Number Three of the ten o'clock class 17 to 6 for the championship of the gym basketball tournament.

Though Tiny Ryan scored 11 of the victors' 17 points, Walker and Henderson, guards, contributed much toward the victory by smothering every threat of the Number Three forwards, Merriam, Hargrove, and center Nixon.

About thirty students of Dr. Sul-lenger's Criminology class visited the Omaha Central Police station, Monday morning, November 6.

Milder
..yes I like that word
about cigarettes

"When I think of milder cigarettes nowadays, I always think of Chesterfields."

"Because Chesterfields are milder. They've got plenty of taste and aroma to them but they've got mildness too!"

"I smoke Chesterfields all day long—when I'm working and when I'm not, and there's no time when a Chesterfield doesn't taste milder and better."
